

DIRECTIONS TO KNOWLE & PARKING PROVISION

Knowle Local History Society meetings are normally held in Knowle's early 15th century Guild House, the glorious timber-framed building next to the church, or occasionally meetings are in the church. Both are in The Square at the heart of the village at the south end of High Street. Exhibitions in Knowle are shown at Knowle Library, a timber-framed building with two gables in the centre of High Street, approached from a rear courtyard.

Knowle Parish Church and Guild House.

Knowle Library (Chester House)

Knowle lies on the A4141 (formerly A41) about 3 miles south of Solihull, 1 mile from the M42 (J5) and 10 miles from Warwick. The nearest railway station is at Dorridge. Buses from Solihull stop at Knowle every half hour. There are stops outside the church, one opposite and at Knowle Green on the corner of Station Road.

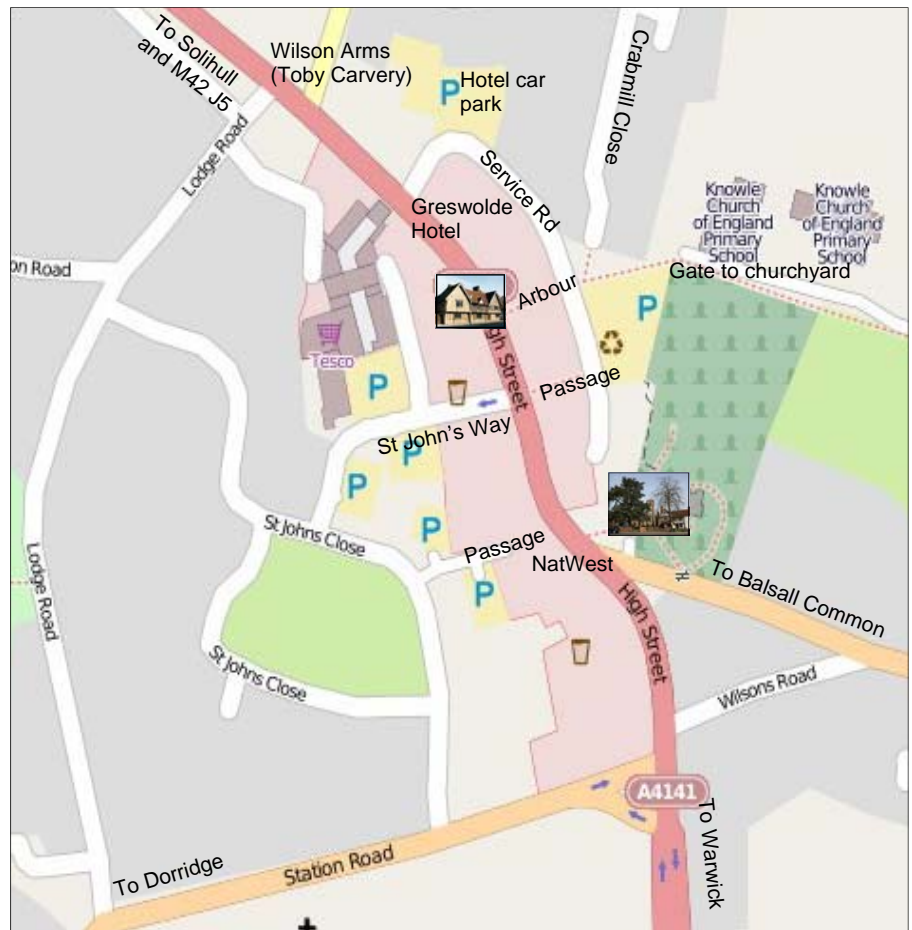

Please note that very little parking is available in the small area in front of the Guild House (the 'cobbles'), which is needed for the organisers. Anyone having a disabled badge please contact us. There are several Pay-and-Display car parks on both sides of High Street. Parking is free on Sundays, after 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday and for disabled badge holders at all times. From 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Saturdays, parking is free for the first three hours, although a ticket must be obtained from the machine. Thereafter reasonable charges apply.

The most convenient car parks for the Guild House are

- behind the NatWest Bank (opposite the church), accessed from St. John's Close, via Station Road, Lodge Road or High Street/St. John's Way (one way only). A pedestrian passage connects to High Street
- the large car park at the rear of the Greswolde Arms Hotel, accessed from the service road on the Solihull side of the hotel, past the hotel's private car park. The Guild House can be reached from a gate into the churchyard or via a pedestrian passage to High Street

For the library use the large car park at the rear of the Greswolde as above. Approach the library via an arbour from the Solihull end.
