

To Make an Egge Pye

Mince half of a dozen hard eggs very small and shred very fine as much suet in quantity as there is egg and then grate almost a penny loaf and mingle them altogether with half a pound of currants, season it with salt, nutmeg and cinnamon and sugar then mix a little rosewater and vinegar together and sprinkle into it, you may put in a grain of ambergris if you please.